

Cat & Dog Theology

Notes adapted from info at catndogtheology.com

ACTIVITY ONE: Get a partner and answer the questions below.

1. Why did Jesus endure the cross?
2. Why do good people suffer/die?
3. Why would you want to help save others from hell?
4. Why does God say “no” to some prayers?
5. Why did David kill Goliath?

I tend to be more...

- Catlike
 Doglike

Cats care more about...

Dogs care more about...

ACTIVITY TWO: Finish this sentence. “To be like Jesus means...”

DANGERS OF “CAT” THINKING CONCERNING PRAYER:

- Feel good theology blinds cats to the Big Picture of God’s glory.
- Expects life to be fair, so narrows their expectations; experiences disappointment often.
- Praying selfishly hampers the work of the Holy Spirit.
- Robs God of His glory because of missed opportunities.
- Focus too much on the harvest, not enough on God.
- Gets too busy “doing,” rather than “being.”
