Journey of a Lifetime

It was a great honor to serve as an AIMer to the nations of Sri Lanka and India. I would like to thank everyone who made this opportunity possible for me.

Ministry Opportunities:

Colombo: I worked in the Headquarters church, went on prayer walks and spoke in the Tamil service.

Kandy: I spent the day with the pastor and her family for prayer and fellowship.

Rakwana: I helped with the church preschool program by planning songs, games, crafts, and lessons. I sang in the church service and visited many homes for prayer and sharing the Word.

Haputale: I helped the Next Steps Team paint a school. We attended church and spent time with the Sunday School children singing.

CSI Camps: I was able to assist in two Compassion Services International Camps. It was such a delight to see the joy on the faces of those I helped fit with their new reading glasses.

This little girl cried to see the foreigner!

Singing in the local language

The Journey Continues

Ambewela: We traveled over 12 miles on foot to pass out tracts and share the Word with many villages. We visited a daycare and a home for fellowship and singing.

Ministry all along the way!

Kataragama: We visited a local church for prayer and fellowship and traveled to many homes by safari jeep for prayer and testimony.

Teaching

Galaha: I helped with a church preschool by teaching and visited many homes for Bible Study. I spoke in the local church and sang and played the ukulele.

Church Construction

I helped with the construction of a local church. It was a great time of work and fellowship.

My journey this past summer led me down many different paths and through many experiences which have intensified my burden for the lost souls of Asia. Again, I would like to thank all who prayed, gave me financial support, and helped me along the way to make this trip a success. People were encouraged, challenged, and blessed. It was hard to get on the plane to travel back to North America for school and I feel that I left a part of my heart in the nations of Sri Lanka and India. I feel that the journey has not ended yet but has only just begun.
