Becoming Global

By Rachael McBride

When I was thinking about putting this newsletter together, I was struck by the words in the picture above. "I am global." What does this mean to me? How am I being global? What does being global actually look like? I hope in the next page or two that I can show what "being global" looks like to me and help inspire someone to take their "next" right step.

Join me for the next few moments and let yourself be inspired to join Next Steps.

HAMILTON AND AUCKLAND

Bro. Borders, Bro. Poitras, and Bro. Shalm

I have loved every minute of our services here. It was an honor to go to Auckland and Tauranga as well. Getting to hear Bro. Borders, Bro. Poitras, and Bro. Shalm has been the most humbling and awe inspiring experience of my life. Bro. Shalm's missionary stories are so cool and remind me of all the times God has kept His hand upon my life.

The church, in Auckland, then fed us a wonderful home cooked meal that was followed by ice cream.

I also made a new little friend. He was so cute with his ice cream all over his face. He smiled this big smile when I asked him to take a picture with me. He totally stole my heart.

Awesome service,
food,
and new little friends.
